June Days

Lengthening days. More to do in them.

June is an exceptional month to explore Old Town Scottsdale. The Valley has yet to heat up to a hot griddle, and the temperatures are mild enough – especially at night – for daily outdoor activities such as yoga classes, poolside sunbathing, patio eating, and a whole lot more. Out-of-towners are gone, which makes quieter streets, but the stores and art galleries, restaurants and bars, museums and art centers are all open, and have a special fondness for the locals who keep them busy. June Days makes you feel good to be a resident and good to support local businesses. Plus, it has more than enough fun activities to keep your calendar busy.

I'm SLOWLY getting in the routine of emailing members the newsletter. If you would like to be added to the list, please send me an email to the address above.

Explore the rainforest right here in Arizona at Butterfly Wonderland! Featuring the largest butterfly conservatory in the country with thousands of fluttering butterflies, Butterfly Wonderland transports guests of all ages to the rainforest by immersing them in the world of butterflies and other rainforest animals. Live exhibits connect people to nature through a sensory experience that educates, entertains, and provides a refuge from the outside world. Learn about Monarch migration in a captivating 3D movie, observe live chrysalis as they emerge naturally into beautiful butterflies, spend ample time strolling through the conservatory with the butterflies, get up close to unique reptiles that inhabit rainforests across the world, and even indulge in edible insects!

QUEEN CREEK OLIVE MILL

Queen Creek is home to Arizona's first working olive farm and mill. At Queen Creek Olive Mill, a grove with thousands of trees is the source for gourmet extra virgin olive oils. Stuffed olives, tapenades, bath and body products, local vendor and artisan wares, and those oils line the aisles of the mill's gourmet marketplace.
